

Promoting actions for drastic mitigation toward 2020 and beyond from Asia

Date: 6 June 2014 (Fri.)

Time: 15:00 – 16:30

Venue: Room Wind, Ministry of Environment

Organiser: Institute for Global Environmental Strategies (IGES)

This side event will discuss how international society at various levels (both national and sub-national) can enhance mitigation by 2020 and beyond through implementing various policies including market mechanisms to promote drastic mitigation actions. This side event will look at findings from recent research and initiatives to address key questions on how we can effectively implement policy and mechanisms to achieve the ultimate goal of 2 degree target.

Agenda

15:00-15:05	Introduction - Prof. Hironori Hamanaka, Chair, Board of Directors, IGES
15:05-15:20	Raising ambition levels for 2020 and beyond: The case of Japan - Takeshi Kuramochi, Policy Researcher, Climate and Energy Area, IGES
15:20-15:40	How to operationalize market mechanisms: Experience from the implementation of Kyoto Mechanism and the role of Framework for Various Approaches (FVAs) - Kazuhisa Koakutsu, Area Leader, Climate and Energy Area, IGES
15:40-16:00	Promoting city-level actions for drastic mitigation actions - Yunus Arikan, Head of Global Policy and Advocacy, ICLEI-Local Governments for Sustainability World Secretariat
16:00-16:30	Discussion - Moderated by: Prof. Hironori Hamanaka, IGES - Panelists - Dicky Edwin Hindarto, Head of Indonesia Joint Crediting Mechanism Secretariat (Indonesia) - Yunus Arikan, ICLEI World Secretariat
	Closing remarks

Refreshments will be served after the session